After giving it a thorough trial, I received relief, so kept on using it and now I am a strong and well woman. I ever feel badly or out of sorts I take Swamp-Root and it always restores me out I honestly believe that this medicine would cure all the troubles you recommend it for and it is a pleasure for me to send my testimony and photograph to you. I think Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is one of the greatest medicines on earth. Respectfully yours, MRS. JOHN BAILEY, Fort and Ind. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of July, 1909. G. A. DISCOVERS ORIGIN OF REGALL IDEA

Judge Landis Finds First Mention of It Made in the Year 1815.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—The origin of the "regall" idea was discovered by Judge J. M. Landis of the United States district court yesterday in the suit of the government against the Economy Light & Power Company, to restrain the latter from building a dam across the Desplaines river. The point at issue is the navigability of the streams and accounts of early explorers figure in the testimony. A letter dated June 20, 1815, from Governor Lewis Cass of Michigan territory to Washington officials advocated the granting of trading subjects to the Economy Light & Power Company. "This will secure us the right," the letter read, "of recalling them when we find their machinations injurious." "There, we have the origin of the regall idea," interrupted Judge Landis.

COL. HARVEY SPEAKS WELL OF WOODROW

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Colonel George W. Harvey of New York addressed the Illinois Manufacturers' Association at its annual banquet here last night. He referred to the pledges of the democratic party, saying that "regalation downward is decreed. It must come, or the democratic party will sweep, as it should be swept, off the map." Colonel Harvey referred to President-elect Wilson as "The historian, Woodrow Wilson, who has depicted with insight and accuracy, the moral of our history." Governor Wilson, he said, was qualified to ameliorate the West's resentment against the East, and the East's hatred of the West, through his catholicity of spirit and his insight into the problems of the time.

WANT BOTH SIDES TO IMPORT ARMS

Americans Declare Ruling of U. S. Is Detrimental to Foreigners in Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—W. S. Pence of Chicago, S. Stephenson of Los Angeles and D. K. Warren of Three Oaks, Michigan, having interests in Mexico, have protested to the State Department about what they claim is the practice of the United States in permitting export of arms and ammunition to the Mexican forces in Mexico, while passing them to Orozco, leader of the revolutionists. The three men recently appeared before the Senate committee headed by Senator William Alden Smith, investigating whether the revolution in Mexico have been fomented or aided by Americans. The three men have pointed out that the effect and application of such a rule has resulted in forcing the rebels to buy upon Americans in Mexico by a system of forced loans or, in some cases, to procure weapons of war. They have urged upon the State Department that the only means of meeting the difficulty was to turn to the old practice of permitting export of arms and ammunition to both sides under restriction. It has been pointed out by State Department officials that under the recent neutrality proclamation the government is absolutely prohibited from permitting war supplies to go to the insurgents. It is expected that an effort will be made to have the Senate committee recommend either an amendment or the withdrawal of the proclamation.

WILL BE JUBILANT OVER NEW LINE

Celebration to Be Held in East Oakland When Road Is Completed.

A celebration will be held by the citizens of East Oakland under the auspices of the Steinway Terrace and the Melrose Improvement Clubs, on or about Christmas or New Year, on the completion of the new electric railroad which begins at Thirteenth avenue and extends eastward on East Sixteenth street to Talcott avenue to Twenty-fifth avenue to the Foot-hill Boulevard to Courtland avenue to Ignacio avenue to Frank avenue near Central avenue, the terminus of the road. It covers a territory that is growing rapidly, and will relieve the congestion on East Fourteenth street. The Traction Company is now pushing the work with 300 men, excavating and laying track. This line will connect at Thirteenth avenue with the present double track line into Oakland and will be slightly over five miles in length. The public is invited to be present at the opening exercises and enjoy the program, which will be announced later.

TREASURY METHODS ARE BRANDED LAX

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—George W. Fitzgerald, on trial for the alleged embezzlement of $173,000 from the sub-treasury in Chicago in February, 1907, explained today that he did not finish the full course in the United States Naval Academy in 1883 because he considered prospects in the business world better than active service in the navy. Fitzgerald described the system of handling the money in the sub-treasury as lax and said that at least three men in the office had access to his cage where large sums of money were kept. He said his protest against the laxity were unheeded.

Deeds Sarcophagus To City of Venice

Southerner Takes Precaution That Tomb Will Not Be Destroyed.

VENICE, Cal., Dec. 11.—To secure himself and his wife the perpetual right to occupy a sarcophagus, built recently in his front yard, Ernest Fallman, a wealthy mining man, residing at Venice, deeded the tomb to the city today. Kellner stated that he took this action as a precaution against the possibility of the burial compartments being destroyed by any persons acquiring his property in future. The tomb is equipped with modern burglar-proof apparatus, including an alarm that would warn the occupants of the adjacent residence should any attempt to tamper with it. The alarm is also connected with the Venice police station.

Mysterious Shots In Black-Hand Plot

MELROSE, Dec. 11.—J. H. Hindley, 1217 Fifty-second avenue, reported to the Melrose police today that at 2 o'clock this morning he and his wife heard three pistol shots near his place. Hindley said he was outside and saw a man in a black suit jump over a fence in front of the DeLafayette where a "black hand" note was found. He thought that the man who had fired the shots is one of the "black hand" gang that are threatening the DeLafayes, and that he was about to make an attack on the house when he was scared away by some noise. The police are making a thorough investigation into the mystery and the house of DeLafayes is closely watched. The note demanded $1000.

SENATE TO TAKE UP PRICE CUTTING

Methods of Driving Out Competitors Will Be Thoroughly Investigated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Price-cutting by monopolies or combinations in one locality to drive competitors out of business is to be immediately considered by the Senate committee on interstate commerce. Several anti-trust bills now before the Senate contain provisions similar to that embodied in a new measure introduced yesterday by Senator Clapp. He will urge that other features of anti-trust legislation be temporarily laid aside and that the committee concentrate its efforts upon a single plan to prevent interstate corporations from selling goods in one locality at a different price than in another, except in so far as freight rates influence the price. "The Supreme Court has already sustained several state laws similar in character," he said today.

FINDS EVIDENCE AGAINST JONAS

Theodore Kytka Gives Additional Light in Murder Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—Handwriting expert Theodore Kytka contributed an important bit of evidence at the inquest in connection with the murder of Mrs. Lena Jones who was slain two weeks ago, when he took the witness stand this morning. The inquiry by Coroner T. B. W. Leland was begun on Monday, but was continued until today. The detectives took Joseph Jonas, a tailor, and son of the dead woman, to the morgue to be present during the hearing. The evidence submitted by Kytka was to the effect that the pieces of fiber were found on the knifeblade in Jonas' possession. This fiber, according to Kytka, when examined under the microscope, proved to be identical with that used in the making of the belt which Mrs. Jones wore around her body and to which she had suspended a sack containing her jewels. It is the theory of the detectives that this belt was ripped from her body with a knife. The bag was found after the murder and the rip could be seen. A number of other witnesses were called, including neighbors, who lived near the Broderick avenue house where the crime was committed.

At noon today, the sixteenth hour, the 15 leading teams were tied at 1220 miles two laps, with the Sutter brothers still one lap behind. The best previous record for this hour was 1202 miles 9 laps, made in 1909.

The Gas Company Will Show Device for Resuscitating Victims. Dr. Schlapp Declares Mother's Work in Factory Impairs Baby's Health. January 1 to See the End of Bucket and Pitcher in Washington. NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The large number of feeble-minded children today is the direct result of the overwork and overstrain to which the mothers are subjected in the factories. This is the conclusion reached by Dr. Max Schlapp, head of a bureau which was established by the New York department of charities a year ago for the study of defective children. Dr. Schlapp's report of his first year's work shows that he has studied 800 cases and found that in a majority of cases the mother of the children was physically and mentally unfit because she was an industrial slave. "Ten years in industry," he says, "ruins a woman for marriage physically and mentally. "I do not mean that every woman who works in a factory has defective children. In some factories the women workers have decent conditions and reasonable hours, but these are few."

"The Best Is Always the Cheapest"

When you get dentistry, get the best or none at all. It will cost you a little more than the other kind, but it's worth more.

Some folks have an idea that one dentist is just as capable as another. Unfortunately for the public, such is not the case.

There are dentists who will fill a tooth for fifty cents, but their work is worse than worthless. They are fifty-cent men with fifty-cent brains and fifty cents' worth of ability. They tell you that their work is exactly the same as that of first class dentists who charge two or three times as much. If it was they would have to demand more money for it. Good dental work cannot be done at the ridiculously low prices they ask.

No matter where you go you'll never get more than you pay for. There are very few philanthropists in the dental profession. Good dentistry calls for good materials, and good materials cost money. No dentist can fill a tooth for fifty cents, using first class material, and make any profit.

Don't attempt to compete with "bargain counter" dentists. Although my work is the finest that dental science can produce, yet my prices are not excessive. I charge just what the work is worth, and no more. Besides, I offer you something that you can't get elsewhere. I give you complete freedom from pain.

My great discovery, Terythia, makes it possible for the most nervous patient to enjoy perfect ease and comfort while having his teeth fixed. No matter how sensitive your teeth may be, you won't have to endure a particle of pain from the time you enter my office until you leave it. Terythia does away with the torture in dental operations of every description.

I want every man and woman who has some teeth missing to call and let me explain how I replace lost teeth by my Rex Alveolar method without using plates or bridge work. Any person who has two or more sound, natural teeth remaining in the jaws can have the missing ones restored by this method.

Rex Alveolar teeth are put in the mouth to stay, and won't fall out or work loose. They are almost equal to nature's teeth in appearance, service and durability. I guarantee them to give absolute satisfaction in every case.

It won't cost you a cent to have a talk with me. Call at once and get my estimate on any dental work you require. Examination free to all.

Hours 8:30 to 5:30; Sunday 10 to 12. These who cannot call should write for book explaining my Terythia, Alveolar and Rex Alveolar methods.

FINDS MESSAGE FROM DEAD RACE

Geologist Discovers Paintings of Earliest California Inhabitants.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—Hiram O. Denby, teacher of geology in Drake University, Des Moines, explored the mysterious cave on Point Dume that has long been the objective point of numerous searches. Explorations there have been a vague story that a cavern had been discovered, but up to this time it has not been possible to definitely locate it or find any human being who had found the hidden opening and penetrated its depths.

Denby, who returned yesterday, found the entrance and followed the cliff in the earth forty feet. The floor and walls gave evidence that the cavern at one time contained great chests. Denby made discoveries which convinced him that the natural cave had been the retreat of a people who antedated the Spanish. These evidences appear in the form of hieroglyphics painted with an enduring color on the walls.

The paintings are such in form and character as might have been executed by Aztecs, cave dwellers of Mexico or those fluted races who were driven westward from the deserts of what is now New Mexico, says Denby.

The point is covered with an enamel which at first glance seems to have been "burned or baked over the drawings. Moistening and vigorous scrubbing makes no impression upon the ancient messages, and a small place which was broken off in the investigation revealed the earthen paint beneath a colorless coating not unlike the quartz.

ACQUIT ALASKA BANKERS.

VALDEZ, Alaska, Dec. 11.—Captain Elbridge T. Barnette and B. R. Dusenbury were acquitted by Federal Judge Thomas R. Lyons yesterday of the charge of making a false statement of the condition of the Washington-Alaska bank at Fairbanks. Judge Lyons said the prosecution had failed to show intent to deceive or to defraud.

'FIRESIDE' GEOGRAPHERS ARE POLITELY EXCORIATED

Whether you believe that Dr. Frederick A. Cook is the victim of the greatest conspiracy of the century or that he is the most monumental liar since Baron M., you must admit that he is an unctuous entertainer, the soul of urbanity, and the one man who has us all still guessing.

In the sanctum of William Ely, manager of Pantages theater, where the explorer made his headquarters in San Francisco, Dr. Cook told a TRIBUNE reporter what he thought of "arm chair explorers," "fireside geographers," "character assassins," and finally "blonde haired Esquimaux." Despite the explosive quality of some of the doctor's language his voice was always as smooth as velvet, his manner correct and his diction impeccable. He spoke as one who has been interviewed under every conceivable condition and at every possible time of day and night in every country in the world, and who knows just what he will be asked and has the answer all ready for you before you get your query framed.

LAW OF OPPOSITES.

"Did you ever stop to realize that an Esquimaux's idea of the lower regions is a place of perpetual ice and his notion of Paradise is intimately connected with heat?"

The interviewer's mind soured as he over various chapters of the family Bible and he had to confess that this was a new wrinkle in theology to him. Yet it seemed natural enough that blubber and an open fire should be considered Paradise in a land where a Hotel Oakland cocktail would freeze before you could get to your lips.

Passing from climatic conditions in Oakland to topographical conditions in the region where Dr. Cook claims priority, the explorer confessed to a hankering desire to return there.

"Within five hundred miles of the pole," he remarked, "there is land available for cultivation to an extent which would permit the fur bearing animals to be propagated successfully by means of native herbs and shrubs. Remember that the long winter of the six months summer enables plants to grow in every twenty-four hours twice as fast as they would grow with only twelve hours of sunlight. While the land could never be used successfully for agricultural purposes, they would nevertheless permit farming of fur-bearing animals which are fast becoming extinct. I have been asked to join in a company of eastern financiers who purpose to take up the industry, on land as well as sea, and I may decide to accept the offer. We would propagate such growth as the seal and other and other native animals subsist upon."

It was not very long before Dr. Cook drifted naturally enough into the subject of controversy with the general public is already familiar. Suffice it to say that the explorer flatly charges Admiral Peary with being responsible for the formation of a press bureau whose agents, it is claimed, not alone suppress the truth, but also fabricate news. Dr. Cook said he had a proof of this, secured by a bribe of $20,000, affidavits calculated to disprove Dr. Cook's claim to have ascended Mt. McKinley.

"DISCOVERER" SCRATCHED OUT.

"The words 'discoverer of the pole' were scratched out of the Congressional bill which retired Peary as a navigator," said Dr. Cook. "My name was never printed at the time, but I established the truth of it to my own satisfaction, and the document is now on record at Washington."

"No honor ever extended to me in this or any other country has ever been repudiated, despite reports to the contrary, and I think that postally will recognize that my claims are worthy of credence and that the documents which I forwarded to Copenhagen, and which are still there, represent a near a proof of my actual achievements as it is possible to secure."

Dr. Cook declares that he has no desire to wreat any of the glory from Peary but believes that the pole is big enough for two men to have found without quarreling about it.

The only time that his blue eyes light with the fire of indignation is when he is brought to discuss the verdict of "armchair geographers," as he calls them.

The idea of men, who have never been farther north than Canada, unbridlingly looking over my notes is supremely ridiculous. There are no explorers, who know conditions in the north, who have not openly come over to my side of this controversy in the last few years. I have named sixteen men in this connection, whom he said had publicly expressed the opinion that he had really reached the pole.

THOSE BLONDE-HAIRED ESQUIMAUX

When some one asked how he accounted for the presence of the "blonde-haired Esquimaux" who had recently been discovered in the interior of Greenland, Dr. Cook smiled good-humoredly and blamed it all on "Eric the Red."

"He was the original land promoter, you know, who discovered a bleak country and called it 'Greenland' and then took a colony of his countrymen over in the eleventh century, and sold them town lots. After he had promoted the land selling game to the point where it became a profitable investment, the plague came along and Greenland was shut off from the rest of the world."

"Years later, when a party went over from Iceland to search for the Norsemen, they found nothing but deserted villages and a few old relics. None of the original colony was ever discovered until the blonde-haired Esquimaux turned up."

WELL, HARDLY THAT.

"And your inference is that these are some of the descendants of Eric the Red's colonists?" he was asked.

"That's what the 'fireside historians' have deduced," he observed drily, "but these 'blondes' are only two hundred and fifty miles away from a sailing station where a hundred handsome Scotchmen would lead highly dreary lives if it was not for their Esquimaux squaws. You know they take marry the best like they do anywhere else, but then I don't want to take any glory from the discoverer of those blonde-haired Esquimaux, you know it wouldn't be professional etiquette," and Dr. Cook rose merrily to answer his call to the curtain.

Edward M. Wall and Mrs. Ruth Ewing Wall of Alameda, principals in a divorce action here with later startling developments are on the road to reconciliation.

Their two little daughters, both under 10 years of age, probably will bring the parents together. Wall is known to be anxious to forget the past and begin over.

Recently Wall obtained custody of the children when Judge Harris modified the interlocutory decree of divorce which gave them to her. Broken hearted at her loss, Mrs. Wall collapsed in the corridor outside the court room and Wall started to catch her in his arms. Richard Wall, his brother, caught Edward by the arm and hurried him into an automobile.

Wall and Judge Harris directed Mrs. Wall to surrender the children to her husband on a 30-day stay of proceedings was obtained pending an appeal and Mrs. Wall continued as their temporary guardian. Though they had been staying at a convent at San Rafael she had them in her apartments at San Francisco. Mrs. Wall's request she permitted him to take the older child with him on a trip to Byron Springs. The other remained with her.

Attorney John McVeay, who represented Wall in the proceedings, said today that the efforts to bring about a reconciliation probably would be successful.

PRESIDENT TAFT TO TEACH AT YALE

Will Take Kent Chair of Law When He Leaves White House.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—President Taft will not go to Cincinnati and practice law when he leaves the White House, but has agreed to accept a professorship at Yale law school. This statement was made authoritatively today by a close friend of Taft, who said he was acquainted with the President's plans.

The informant stated that President Taft will accept the Kent professorship of law, which has been unfilled since the death of Edward J. Phelps in 1909. Phelps was appointed to the professorship in 1881, and although he became Minister to Great Britain by appointment of President Cleveland in 1895, he retained it until his death. The professorship covers lectures in both constitutional and international law.

NEW CAR SERVICE TO START SOON

Trolley Extension to Foothill Boulevard Will Be Boon to Public.

To relieve the burden of traffic on East Fourteenth street and furnish convenient transportation facilities for the populous district lying southeast of that street, a new line will be opened Saturday by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway system.

The new street car line will be the most important of recent car line extensions and represents an expenditure of $172,494.19. It will be a boon to a great and growing territory which has hitherto been without immediate transportation service and is expected to add largely in promoting the development of the section of the city which it will serve.

The new route will have its terminal at Thirteenth and Washington streets, the new center, and will run with a double track via Thirteenth, Twelfth, First avenue, East Sixteenth street to Foothill boulevard and Ignacio avenue to its junction with Fifty-fifth avenue. From Thirteenth avenue on, this route represents new construction entirely, built with a view to permanence and the installation of the most modern system of street car trackage.

In the construction of the line 17,000 feet of double trackage was used with 11,000 cubic yards of rock ballast, 19,200 ties and 765 tons of 70-pound T rails. Three hundred and seventy-five thousand feet of Oil macadam paving and 341 steel trolley poles were called for by the engineers, with 14,900 feet of feeder lines to keep the "hules" at high voltage. The trolley wire used on the new line totals 35,000 feet.

TO BEGIN SERVICE SOON.

Commencing Saturday morning at 5.32 a m cars will run over the new line on a 15-minute schedule until 7.30 in the morning, when the headway will be ten minutes until 8.20 p. m., going back to the 15-minute schedule at that hour until late at night. The last car will leave the boulevard terminus at 12.40 a. m. and the last car out from the city will start at 1.02 a. m.

The temporary terminus of the road will be at Forty-second avenue until the double trackage is finished to the permanent terminal.

The case of the California Railway will also henceforth operate over this line from Fifty-second avenue to First avenue instead of over the Fourteenth street tracks as at present.

Efficiency of the system are confident that the new route will be greatly appreciated by the public which has hitherto had to go as much as eight and ten blocks to reach the Fourteenth street line.

KNOWLAND TALKS ON HARBOR WORK

Congressman Is the Guest of Honor at Palace Hotel Luncheon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—Congressman Joseph R. Knowland was the honored guest at a luncheon given at the Palace Hotel today by the Richmond Industrial Commission. The purpose of the luncheon was to discuss the proposed appropriation for the Government for the dredging of channels in the inner harbor of the City of Richmond.

Congressman Knowland reviewed the proceedings for the improvement of Richmond harbor. He said that the matter was under consideration by the Senate and Harbors board and was held back pending the receipt of additional information from Colonel Thomas H. Reese of the War Department engineering corps.

Colonel Reese has made both his initial and detailed survey of the harbor and forwarded this data to Washington. It is stated that the engineer's reports are favorable. After examination of the detailed survey supplied by Colonel Reese, the Rivers and Harbors board applied for further data but, up to late this week, this data had not yet been supplied. When the board makes its report the decision in turn, must receive the sanction of the Secretary of War.

MILITARY SERVICE FOR WOMEN IS PROPOSED

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Dec. 11.—A fight for the introduction of military service for women is in contemplation by the women of Denmark as a sequel to their expected victory in the struggle for women's suffrage.

The Danish parliament, they believe, is almost certain to pass the bill giving women the vote this winter, and many women are beginning to ask what will become of the organization, which, formed for the purpose of securing the enfranchisement of women, has provided many of them with interesting, and sometimes lucrative, positions.

'DEAD' HUSBAND ENDS $20,000 SUIT

Breach of Promise Action Is Brought to a Sudden Close.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—A $20,000 breach of promise suit was brought to a halt yesterday here when the "dead" husband of Mrs. Helen Cauley, plaintiff against David A. Sherard, a wealthy truckman, was brought into court very much alive.

The woman had just testified that her husband died in December, 1903, in a railroad wreck. As a result of her testimony a charge of perjury was lodged against her. The husband, Andrew J. Cauley, who seemed to be puzzled as to why he had been brought to the courtroom, testified that he married the plaintiff 10 years ago and had breakfasted with her at their apartments only yesterday morning.

"When did you first hear of this case?" asked Mrs. Cauley's lawyer. "I have not heard of any case. I got some blue tickets to come down here and showed them to my wife, but she did not know what they were for. She left the house this morning and said she had an engagement."

Mrs. Cauley, who is a trained nurse, alleged in her suit that Sherard had won her heart while she nursed him in a hospital here and had promised to marry her.

RAILROAD MAN FREED.

JUNEAU, Alaska, Dec. 11.—United States Judge Peter D. Overfield dismissed yesterday the case of the United States against Francis J. Cushing, an official of the White Pass & Yukon railroad, who was indicted last winter on a charge of conspiracy to stifle the Humboldt Steamship Company by entering into an illegal rate combination with other transportation companies regarding freight rates at Skagway. Similar cases against officers of other companies are pending.

HONOLULU 'TALKS' TO WASHINGTON

Wireless Message Flashes 5600 Miles Through the Air.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—All previous records for long-distance communication by means of wireless telegraphy were eclipsed last Sunday evening, when S. B. Maddams, operator at the Honolulu station of the Federal Telegraph company, flashed on an aerial conversation with the Arlington station near Washington, D. C., where C. F. Elwell, chief engineer of the Poulsen system, scarcely able to believe his senses, sat before his instrument.

The distance between the high aerial in Honolulu and the lofty antennas at Arlington, is on a bee line, about 5600 miles, and the successful transmission of messages at so great a distance is all the more remarkable because of the fact that more than half of this journey through space was accomplished over land, a condition that has always made long-distance wireless more difficult.

The Federal Telegraph company has been experimenting on what is termed "hard messages" for some time, and Sunday evening the operator at the South City station of the company, in this city, succeeded in establishing a connection with Arlington, 3500 miles away. Several messages from the eastern station had come flying through space, and Chief Engineer Elwell was listening intently for an answer from San Francisco when he was startled to hear clearly the signal of the Honolulu operator immediately breaking in upon the message that was coming from this city. Elwell grasped the sending key and crashed out this message to San Francisco: "Call Honolulu and tell him to listen, for we get him fine."

The San Francisco operator immediately did as directed and as soon as he had been informed that Honolulu was ready Elwell launched this aerogram into the air.

C. F. Elwell at Arlington, near Washington. How do you get us? We set you was at 8:50 p. m., Washington time, which would make it about 8:20 here and 11:20 at Honolulu. In just five minutes Elwell, who has been straining his ears at the receiver in an endeavor to hear what he deemed impossible, recognized the tick-tick of an incoming message. Hardly daring to hope that this faint click might be the answer from far-off Hawaii for which he was waiting, he turned his receiving apparatus on, as the sound grew stronger, finally realized that wireless history was in the making and that the long-distance record was being broken.

SAN RAFAEL MAN WALKS CONTINENT

Trip From San Francisco to New York Is Made in 132 Days.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—With a slight stoop to his shoulders, caused by the thirty-pound pack that was strung across them, Charles Schladt of San Rafael, Cal., trudged into the city quietly and unostentatiously yesterday, completing the last lap of his 3213-mile tramp across the continent in 132 days, an average of a little over twenty-five miles a day. Schladt is a vegetarian and sustained himself during the entire trip upon bread, cheese, fruit and water, while many times he lived upon the food that he picked up on the railroad tracks after it had been thrown out of the Pullman cars.

He is a small man about five feet five inches and is 53 years old. He wears no overcoat or underwear and has done all his walking sans socks.

Many thrilling events were experienced on his trip from the Pacific. In Nevada, while he was crossing a trestle over a stream in the mountains, a train overtook him. He just had time to slip between the ties and hang on to one of them to escape being crushed to death. As the train passed over his head he was loosened and he fell into the stream, spraining his ankle, which is still swollen.

While sleeping in a snow shed on the Rocky mountains he was attacked by a bear, but managed to fight it off with a burning stick which he snatched from his small fire.

A few days later, while sleeping under a railroad bridge, he awoke to find a rattlesnake crawling over his leg. He lay perfectly still until the sun rose over the eastern plains, when the reptile crawled away.

FIND ABANDONED BALLOON.

SALINAS, Dec. 11.—While quail hunting on the Chuparas ranch in the Coast range, about 20 miles from Salinas, Fred Chappell, Dr. J. A. Chappell and Jesse Reeve found a full-sized balloon with a wicker basket attached. It had apparently been there for some weeks, for the sun's rays had blistered the name on the bag so it was unintelligible. Some parts of the rope and other souvenirs were brought to town, but the main bag was too heavy to be carried on horseback.

"From your druggist get half ounce of Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated Pine) and two ounces of Glycerine. Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey, shake well and use in doses of one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal and at bedtime. Smaller doses to children according to age. But be sure to get only the genuine Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated Pine). Each half ounce bottle comes in a sealed tin screw-top case. If your druggist does not have it he will quickly get it. Many mixtures are of large quantity and cheaper, but it is risky to experiment. This formula and names of reliable doctor and is certain. This was first published here six years ago and local druggists say it has been in constant demand ever since."

WORK IS STARTED ON LIBERTY BELL

Relic to Be Strengthened for Long Journey to San Francisco.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 11.—At the request of friends the Mayor has engaged the services of Frederick Taylor, a consulting engineer of Chestnut Hill, who will repair the Liberty Bell so that it may make the trip to the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco.

Taylor has devised an internal structure of steel and wood, which will put an end to the dead-weight strain that is rapidly lengthening the crack and pulling the historic bell asunder. Taylor has assured the city authorities that there is but little danger in the operation and that there will be no unsightly blotches or apparatus visible to mar its appearance while on its visit to San Francisco.

Unknown to anyone except Director Cooke and Chief Zeal of the bureau of city proper, Engineer Taylor visited Independence Hall yesterday. The sides of the glass case in which the bell is enclosed were removed and the Liberty Bell repairer started to work.

The visit was made after Independence Hall had closed, so that news of the work did not become public until the building was closed for the night. The watchman who came on duty found that there was a temporary scaffolding in place and, when he saw this, he reported to the City Hall that all was not well with the bell and that he had better report the matter. He was then told that everything was all right and in this way the secret leaked out to those who happened to be at police headquarters at the time.

SULTAN'S SON COMING TO LOOK AT FAIR SITE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—That the eldest son and heir apparent of the Sultan of Oman may be one of the distinguished visitors to San Francisco in the near future to look over the exposition grounds and plans was the purport of a letter received yesterday by the exposition from its representative in Washington. The letter gives the following dispatch received from the American Consul at Maskat, Oman, by the State Department:

"I took occasion to call the matter of the proposed exposition to the attention of His Highness the Sultan of Oman. Since that time an intimation has been conveyed to me that Seyyid Taimoor bin Faysal bin Turki, eldest son and heir apparent of the Sultan, is much interested and would like to make the trip. I was given to understand that he hopes to receive an official invitation from the government."

WOMAN SENTENCED TO ONE YEAR IN PRISON

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Dec. 11.—Maggie Au France of Douglas, famed as the wealthiest woman in Wyoming and noted for her philanthropies, has been convicted of larceny of the "Mormon slave" act in the Federal Court here and sentenced to one year at Leavenworth penitentiary, Kansas, by Judge Riner.

She was charged with transporting Helen Bourie and Jessie Hoeler from Fort Wayne, Ind., to Douglas, Wyo., for immoral purposes.

At her first trial, a jury disagreed. The jury found a verdict in her second trial today within 15 minutes.

Maggie Au France, beside her establishment in Douglas, operates an extensive ranch.

GOETHALS NAMED AS PANAMA GOVERNOR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—President Taft is thinking of offering the governorship of the Panama canal zone to Colonel George Goethals, the builder of the canal. It Taft makes his proposed Panama trip it is practically certain that he will offer the post to Colonel Goethals and take up with him, whether he accepts or not, plans for zone government.

Several positions are to be filled and do not have to be confirmed by the United States Senate. It is probable that Taft will fill them before he goes out of office.

PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 11.—Joseph T. Bear, an Indian, was arrested today under the federal white slave act, charged with bringing Miss Virginia Brown, a white girl, from Devil's Lake to the Cheyenne river Indian reservation.

"Fifty Years Ago, When Golden Wedding Rye Was Young"

Many people do not know that whiskey can have an agreeable taste. They do not know that it can have the mild, mellow thrill, without a single unpleasant after-effect. They do not know has the agreeable Flavor and Quality which they have imagined, but never found in ordinary whiskey.

Its formula and process of manufacture keep the original quality absolutely pure all the way through.

Try Golden Wedding.

The flavor and mellowness ripened into the finest grain by the sunshine, and kept in by the marvelous science with which it is distilled.

That's why it is the preferred whiskey for the sideboard.

HUNTING PARSON'S ESTATE IS LARGE

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The vast estate of the Rev. C. Slingsby, who was killed on November 13 by a fall from his horse while hunting, is being settled in the courts, and the announcement of the apportionment of the acreage among his heirs, of whom lives in California, is expected at an early date.

The Rev. Dr. Slingsby, who was in his seventieth year, was hunting with the York and Ainstrey hounds near Monkton, near York, when his horse stumbled in taking a hedge. The preacher was thrown on his head and his neck broken.

The Rev. Dr. Slingsby's Servant and other estates in Yorkshire consist of about 10,000 acres, paying an annual rental of about $45,000.

He was the eldest son of the Rev. Thomas Atkinson, rector of Kirby Sigston, Yorkshire, and entered the order in 1820, eventually becoming the rector at Kirby Sigston. In 1873 he married a daughter of Charles Reynard, who survives him.

He inherited his estates under remarkable circumstances. He was cousin of Sir Charles Slingsby, also killed while following the York and Ainstrey hounds, on February 4, 1869, being drowned with several other members of the hunt while crossing the river Ure.

St. Charles died without issue and the estate went to his sister, who married Captain Leslie. Again there was no issue and the estate reverted to the Rev. Charles Atkinson, who assumed the name of Slingsby in 1869.

SON UNDER A CLOUD.
The heir mentioned in this dispatch as living in the United States is Lieutenant Charles Henry Reynard Slingsby, accused recently by the State Board of Health of having substituted the child of another for his own son, who died shortly after birth. The substituted child is said to have been the natural son of Lillian Anderson, a Sonoma county high school girl.

The Rev. C. Slingsby started the investigation which led to this charge by the Board of Health, when a rumor reached him that his son had substituted the child of another as his own, in order to build up a new claim upon the million-dollar estate in England. He is believed to have died without learning the result of this investigation.

FORMER SOCIETY GIRL RECEIVES BLACK VEIL

SAN RAPHAEL, Dec. 11.—Miss Jennie Boyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boyle of San Rafael, who six months ago celebrated her spiritual bridal day as a nun, received the black veil and gold ring of impressive consecration ceremonies yesterday morning in the Carmelite convent at Hyde and Lombard streets.

The former young society girl will henceforth be known as Sister Gabriel.

Two years ago Miss Boyle, having completed her schooling, voluntarily renounced the world and entered upon a secluded religious career. Six months later, dressed in bridal satin and bearing white lilies, she received the white veil, her sister, Miss Una Boyle, attending her as maid of honor.

At yesterday's ceremonies, Father Riehard of Olinda offered the solemn high mass. Assisting him were Rev. Father Apollinaris, O. F. M., who officiated as deacon, and Rev. Father Walsh, who was the subdeacon. Rev. Father Anthony, O. F. M., was master of ceremonies.

Among the other priests who attended the mass were his grace Archbishop P. W. Riordan, Rev. Charles Ramm, Rev. John Cantwell, Rev. Father Michaels, O. F. M., of Ukiah; Rev. Father Towey, Rev. Father Diano, S. J., and Rev. Father John Harrington.

NEWSIES' DANCE TO BRING BIG 'FEED'

Means Much to Tads if Fund Is Raised so They Can Enjoy Christmas.

Tickets for the newsboys' dance, to be given in Maple Hall on Saturday evening, December 11, are still being "hustled" by the boys, whose work is the selling of the various dailies, in order that sufficient funds be raised for the celebration of Christmas with a big dinner. There are turkeys, mince, plum, cranberry sauce, fruit and various other things to be purchased for the dinner and all bills must be met out of the proceeds of the dance. In addition to this, the boys have for the dance, music, programs and other incidentals, and many of the newsies have consequently many tickets to be disposed of by the "newsies."

Kind-hearted business men, merchants and others who have been served with papers irrespective of wind or weather have purchased tickets for the dance but there still remains quite a few to be sold and so the "hustling" is still going on. The tickets are being a little more strongly urged upon those whom the newsboys feel may be glad to help as the time for the big event is drawing near.

It is characteristic of the street merchants that they give something rather than ask for out-and-out charity. Such a proposal is repulsive to the lads who depend on their own resources, not only for themselves but often for others as well.

"Dis ain't no bunk, it's de real 'ting and some class, too," stoutly maintained one "newsie" when asked about the dance. "We got gum promises of a feed, and there wasn't nuttin' doing, see. We got bus ourselves dis trip and give a real swell skate. Course if you don't want to come you don't have to, but de dance is on de level and de money we gets from de tickets is going fer de feed. Dat's all der is to it and all you news-pap-er guys is got to do is boost."

STATE SPENDS BIG SUM ON SCHOOLS

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 11.—California expended the staggering sum of $23,978,620 for the education of children in the high schools, elementary schools and kindergartens during the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1912, according to figures compiled today by Job Wood Jr., state-dean in the office of the state superintendent of public instruction. Of this great total $16,910,430 was spent for the maintenance and development of elementary schools, $6,862,735 for high schools and $2,005,454 for kindergartens.

The total of $23,978,620 does not include approximately $5,000,000 which was expended by the higher educational institutions, such as the state and the University of California, for the care of physically imperfect children.

The average daily attendance in kindergartens, elementary and high schools during the year was 414,078. On these totals Statistician Wood bases his statement that it cost approximately $67.90 per year for each child to attend schools in the state.

The average daily attendance in the elementary schools of the state during the period was 356,945, as compared with 47,420 in high schools and 978 in kindergartens. To instruct this number of pupils there were employed 13,244 teachers, as follows: Kindergartens, 282; elementary teachers, 10,674; and high school teachers, 2312.

All the kindergarten teachers were women. Of this 10,674 elementary teachers 4663 were women and 1011 men. Of the 2312 high school instructors 1402 were women and 910 were men.

CONGRESSMAN'S FIST ENDS CARD DISPUTE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—While members of the appropriations committee of the House were peacefully enjoying a whist game on the war vessel that was taking them to Panama for an inspection of the canal a dispute over the rules of the game arose between Chairman Fitzgerald and Congressman Charles L. Bartlett of Georgia.

The blow broke the spectacles, but Fitzgerald instead of striking back calmly said: "In our state it is a felony to strike a man with glasses." He continued to chide the Georgia member for his hot-headedness, but peace was finally restored.

RISKS LIFE TO SAVE SUICIDE FROM RIVER

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 11.—While Commissioner Wilder, City Engineer Givan and Harbor Master McArthur were inspecting a new city wharf yesterday a man dived into the water. McArthur climbed over the wharf, and at the peril of his own life slid down a wire cable to the water. The man was clinging to a pile.

McArthur reached out his hand and called to him to grasp it. But the man in the water pushed himself free and floated on his back for a moment.

"Let me alone; I want to die!" he called to McArthur, and ducked his head under the water. As he did so McArthur saw a deep gash in his neck. The man kept his head below the water until he drowned. The body was not recovered.

ARCHITECTS NOT HELD LIABLE, RULES WEBB

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 11.—A decision having an important bearing on the expenditure of school bond money through the state has been received by State Superintendent Hyatt from Attorney-General Webb, dealing with the matter of whether or not architects whose plans have been accepted for school buildings are obliged to provide bonds to construct the building themselves within their estimates. In case the contractors' figures go above the estimates.

It is held by the Attorney-General that there is nothing in the present law which makes possible an affirmative answer to the question. The law, according to the Attorney-General's opinion, does not contemplate that architects shall be builders.

During the time it was in the house, it was in a room where the boy was alone. The doctor said it was a case of food poisoning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—H. C. C. Ironhauser, believed to be a wealthy mining man of Lakeside, San Diego county, committed suicide yesterday afternoon in a room at the Stratford hotel, in Powell street. From a note left by the dead man for his wife, it is believed that he ended his life through grief over an estrangement from her. He parted from Mrs. Ironhauser several years ago in New York. The note reads: "Mrs. Mary Ironhauser, 2012 Boston Road, the Bronx, New York City. "Dearest Wife: We have been parted a good number of years. I have been a wanderer on the face of the earth since then, but if you still believe that I was wrong, forgive me—don't hold it against me. Kiss our two children, and think back of the time when we were happy. I wish you to write Westworth Brothers at Lakeside, have some property there. And now a fond farewell. Think kindly of me once in a while. Your husband, H. C. C. LEONILAS." In blanks left in a check book for the Merchants National Bank of San Diego, Ironhauser wrote notes saying that he had a family in New York, and asking that Westworth Brothers of Lakeside be notified of his death.

Rats Drive Women to High Benches in the Churches

SANTA PAULA, Cal., Dec. 11.—This town needs a Pied Piper of Hamelin. Rats, thousands of them, and all big wood rats, have invaded the place and the situation is such today that women are afraid to go to church. The rats seem to have a preference for churches and on several occasions have forced the feminine attendants at services to take to the high benches.

The city authorities are seeking means to subdue the pest. The rats are believed to have been driven out of the woods by recent fires in the forest.

DECLARE TRUCE IN PATRONAGE FIGHT

Republicans and Democrats
Agree to Compromise
Big Row.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Democratic Senators have called a halt in their plan to block the confirmation of all President Taft's appointments at this session. They have compromised with Republican Senators, under threats of retaliation by the Republicans on Wilson's nominations at the special session.

The basis of the truce over Federal patronage is that the Democrats will not oppose confirmation of any Taft appointments in a state where the Senators are Republicans. In states where the Senators are Democrats they will oppose confirmation of all Federal appointments.

The Republicans, in return for this, will not try to force confirmation of appointments in Democratic states, though they are in a majority at this session. Therefore, it is expected that the settlement will take place in the Senate.

The settlement is a compromise, he will not attempt to make many appointments to Federal offices in Democratic states during the remainder of his term.

LYNCH GIVES TALK TO REAL ESTATE MEN

"There is no such thing as an undesirable people as a class who are deserving of that odium," said Robert Newton Lynch, vice-president and manager of the California Development Board during the course of a talk given during a luncheon before the Oakland Realty Association this afternoon.

Lynch touched on emigration and stated that never before in the history of the world was there such opportunity for forecasting the possible growth of a community fifteen years before the full development.

A few minutes later Earl Halgren, walking along the street where Wright was attacked, noticed the satchel. He picked it up and turned it over to the police. Wright's telephone message to his office that he had been robbed and a message from the police that the satchel had been recovered were received about the same time.

Credit for the partial victory is due to Manager R. K. Roberts of the Bullock house on the coast, and the fight, which he had been told by the Chamber of Commerce, who also contributed cars and drivers for the delegates. Fernando Nelson, the well known real estate agent, C. P. Richardson of the Studebaker interests and many other delegates who gave nearly a week's time to the cause without pay.

Credit is also due to Oakland Manager G. L. McCutcheon of the Howard Automobile company, who drove the grill into the Valley twice in the work of getting the machines admitted to the Yosemite.

Despite this however, the grill of the Glacier Point scheme managed to close the issue to such an extent, that when the northern delegates started for home they all felt that the cause was lost. The news report of yesterday was the first real encouraging sign the men who had been fighting for the project.

On the arrival of the delegates from the northern part of the State the delegates from the southern part of the State met at a conference at the Hotel Oakland, where they agreed to hold a caucus before the secretary's hearing and appoint delegates to represent the cause of the motorists and name one who would properly represent the main idea.

During the conference with the secretary all the delegates worked with determination in a united effort to get machines into the Valley over one road, strictly up to the secretary to be guided by the report of the army engineers.

FORESTERS HAVE BIG INITIATION

1000 Members Present at the Ceremonies; Prominent Officers Present.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic class initiations that has ever taken place in Oakland was held at Maple hall last night when the Ancient Order of Foresters took in a class of 415 new members. There were nearly 1000 Foresters present for the initiation ceremony.

A. C. Kruger, chairman of combined initiation class of Richmond and Oakland, presided and the drill team of Court Oakland No. 46, performed the work. Grand Trustee W. W. Bayless acted as chief ranger.

The halls were decorated in the insignia of the order and palms and other foliage suggestive of the yuletide season made the setting a beautiful one. There were many speakers. Judge C. P. Randon of Stockton, supreme chief ranger, addressed the assembly on the supreme court of the order, of which there are 233. William M. Klingner of San Francisco, grand sub-chief ranger, gave a most effective talk on fraternalism. Judge Frank H. Kervin of the appellate court of California talked on the benefits that are to be derived from the order and particularly the young members who have entered the organization within the past few years, whom he eulogized for the interest they had shown in the work.

State Organizer J. J. Ryan in his address, dwelt on the remarkable success that the Foresters have achieved in California during the year just closing. Jacob Langel, editor of the Foresters' Review, told of the effect that publicity had had on the advancement of the order and mentioned THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, in which an article had appeared announcing last night's meeting and the work that the present open season had accomplished. He stated that The Review was one of the most popular of fraternal journals.

E. B. Village, a pioneer of the order, interested the gathering with his account of the order twenty years ago, when the order was getting a foothold within the state. Judge James G. Quinn, grand chief ranger, gave a most interesting address in general and the principals which it endeavors to inculcate and the promises it has made and is endeavoring to keep.

Walker, the representative of the A. A. A. in Northern California who was present as the representative of the state, placed himself on record as being against the proposition of allowing automobiles into the Valley at the present and advising that the order should not allow over the toll road as far as Glacier Point where the machines were to park.

HARD FIGHT WAS MADE. Walker's company fought a head-on fight with his project before the other delegates arrived in the Valley. He had spent some time with the secretary and the conference had been held at the Point project which in itself was no concession to speak of for the secretary to make a concession to the delegates.

Upon the arrival of the delegates from the northern part of the State the delegates from the southern part of the State met at a conference at the Hotel Oakland, where they agreed to hold a caucus before the secretary's hearing and appoint delegates to represent the cause of the motorists and name one who would properly represent the main idea.

During the conference with the secretary all the delegates worked with determination in a united effort to get machines into the Valley over one road, strictly up to the secretary to be guided by the report of the army engineers.

Despite this however, the grill of the Glacier Point scheme managed to close the issue to such an extent, that when the northern delegates started for home they all felt that the cause was lost. The news report of yesterday was the first real encouraging sign the men who had been fighting for the project.

MOTORISTS GAIN YOSEMITE RIGHT

Secretary Fisher Recommends
Big Oak Flat Route Be Opened.

(BY EDMUND GRINNION.) One of the biggest and most pleasant surprises of the year in motorist circles came yesterday with the news that Secretary of the Interior Walter I. Fisher had recommended the opening to automobiles of the Big Oak Flat road into the Yosemite Valley.

The Yosemite Valley is the main time requesting Congress to make an appropriation for the road work deemed necessary according to the reports compiled by the army engineers.

Here the matter rests with the congressmen from the districts that this road favors and the motorists of the entire State will watch their efforts closely and from the interests the motorists have taken in the question in the past it seems certain that they will give the congressmen their united support.

Of all the districts in the entire State this route means the most to Oakland. Oakland can herald itself as the starting point of the only automobile route to the Yosemite valley. Wealthy eastern motorists visiting the 1915 exposition are doing well to see Oakland and the Big Oak Flat route is known as the northern route to the Valley. It leads to the Yosemite in almost a straight line from this city, entering the world's wonderland at Cranes Flat. It is a wonderful route but one route is to be allowed.

It will be remembered by the motorists who read with interest about the recent conference held at the Hotel Oakland between the secretary and the automobile men, that three different plans were advanced to the secretary for allowing machines to enter the Yosemite of this district. The plan of the Oakland route was the one that was adopted.

Manager R. K. Roberts of the Howard Automobile company fought a head-on fight with his project before the other delegates arrived in the Valley. He had spent some time with the secretary and the conference had been held at the Point project which in itself was no concession to speak of for the secretary to make a concession to the delegates.
